Guide to Adding More Databases to Your Search from CINAHL

Step 1:
From CINAHL you can add more databases to your search by going to "Choose Databases". Databases to consider, depending on your topic, are: Academic Search Complete, Medline, PsycInfo, ERIC, Education Source, & SPORTDiscus. Also, for ebooks, ebook Academic Collection.

Step 2:
Here is the list of database options. Simply check the ones you want. Hover over the icon on the far right of each title to get a description of each database. Then click OK.
Step 3:
Click on “Show all” to display the list of databases you have chosen.

Step 4:
This will display a list of the databases you have chosen.
