Searching for articles for NU 605 Concepts in Nursing Leadership

Q: How do you find articles for your assignments?

A: One option is to search the collection of journals published by SAGE. These include nursing, policy, and management journals. See the recommended list of journals elsewhere in this NU 605 research guide.

Typically, limit searches to the past 5 years.
Consider selecting research articles only.

Consider viewing articles from the list of recommended journal titles. This is where you find the title of the journal.

Select by subject: Health Sciences & Management & Organization Studies are best bets.
